BREAK ONE RULE.

Taxis, minibuses, buses, a ride with a neighbor. Every day, people in your city or town get from home to work, school and the shops. Picture the last taxi you took, from memory.

NAMES _____ GROUP _____

TASK 1 · TEN RULES 10 MINUTES

List ten rules every taxi or ride in your city follows: finding a ride, the price, paying, who drives, where it stops, when it runs. Task 2 goes in the last column.

TASK 2 · HABIT OR SAFETY? 5 MINUTES

H · HABIT
Done this way because it always was. You may break it.

S · SAFETY
Protects people from harm. Keep it.

L · LAW
Breaking it is illegal. Keep it.

T · TRUST
Customers rely on it to feel safe paying. Keep it.

TASK 3 · BREAK ONE, BUILD THE BUSINESS 12 MINUTES

Choose one H rule. Write it as a question, then describe the new business in one sentence for the class vote.

THE RULE
WHAT IF ...?
WHO IT SERVES
WHAT IT OFFERS
HOW IT EARNS
WHO IS UNHAPPY

YOUR TEAM.

YOUR TEAM · PROBLEM MAP BOX 3 CURRENT OPTIONS · SECOND DRAFT · 30 MINUTES

Start from your first draft in Session 4 and your two conversations from homework.

Workarounds: what people put together themselves to cope with your problem.

What people avoid: what they skip, delay or go without because no option fits.

The rule everyone follows: list the rules every current option follows. Mark each H, S, L or T. Circle one H rule your idea could break.

What if ...?

Chaos log: what did your team not know today? A failure you understand, or chaos you do not? What will you do?

FOR YOUR FINAL PROJECT

WHICH RULE WILL YOUR IDEA BREAK?

Your final presentation must show the opportunity: the need, the buyer who pays, and your way to meet it. Start now: write the rule everyone in your industry follows, and the one your idea breaks.

BEFORE SESSION 06

1. Read Rules 16, 18 and 21 in Section 02. For each one, write one business in your city it reminds you of.
2. Watch one workaround people in your city use: something they fix, carry or put together themselves. Write it down.
3. Map keeper: keep box 3, second draft, and your team's chosen rule. Chaos-log keeper: add one new entry.
